

Library Science eLearning Assignment

Week 8 May 11-15

Due Date: Friday, May 15

CREATE: This assignment will be graded.

For your library assignment this week we are asking you to:

- Learn about an illustrator's style from our list of illustrators
- Create a piece of artwork inspired by that illustrator's style
- Share your art and what you learned in writing OR video.

Please see the lesson below for an explanation of each activity.

Checklist for Completion/Grading - This assignment will be graded.

Art medium is the materials that are used to create a work of art or illustration. Art style is the way artwork or illustrations look.

*If you are interested in learning more about these illustrators, there will be expanded information on each illustrator throughout the week in the Disney Library Resources of the Day.

Step 2

Draw/create a picture inspired by the style/medium of your chosen illustrator.

Step 3

Write OR record a video explaining how your illustration represents this illustrator's style/medium. (You might say "My illustrator is...Their style/medium is...My picture represents this because..." and fill in the blanks.)

Step 4 If you wrote, take a photo of your illustration and your written explanation. Share your photo OR your video of your illustration and explanation with your librarian via email. Ms. Rowe at gerowe@cps.edu OR Ms. Albarran at maalbarran2@cps.edu

Office Hours: We will be available by email throughout the school day (8:30am-4pm), and will respond quickly. After these hours, we will respond the next day.

With our understanding of how grading is working, this is our grading plan for Fourth Quarter:

Three assignments will be graded for Quarter 4. Students will receive a Create grade, a Reading grade, and a Research grade. Weekly lessons will clearly state which of the three areas each lesson focuses on and if the assignment will be graded.

Office Hours: We will be available by email throughout the school day (8:30am-4pm), and will respond quickly. After these hours, we will respond the next day.
